

FOUR KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENTS

CAIN DID NOT NOTICE CAR COMING

Probably Talking to Beard and Unthinkingly Approached Railway Crossing

INQUEST IS BEING HELD BY CORONER

Beard and Wife From Galion, O., Were Here For Day to See Property

That a moment's carelessness in driving an automobile was responsible for the death of J. M. Cain and Mr. and Mrs. Beard in the awful tragedy that occurred yesterday afternoon at the McFadden street crossing of the Pacific Electric is generally conceded, though there is also some criticism of the Pacific Electric on general principles to the effect that its cars run too fast inside the city limits.

One witness has stated that Cain was riding east on McFadden street, evidently talking to the man beside him, and that he seemed to take no notice of the railway tracks until ten feet from them. He saw Cain grab for a lever, and then came the terrific crash when the electric car struck the automobile amidships and ground it down the track.

Motorman Bates said the automobile came into view from behind the house, and he was of the opinion that Cain killed his engine.

Witnesses state that the car's whistle was blown on approaching the crossing.

West Saw Auto

George West, an employee of James McFadden, saw Cain go by toward the P. E. Crossing. Cain was talking to Beard, who sat beside him. West was one of those who helped extricate the bodies of the two men from the wreck. Officer Lacy and County Physician Wehrly arrived and also helped. Cain's body was found toward the back of the machine and Beard was close against the wheel. The remains of the woman were on the tracks about 150 feet from the street. Both legs had been amputated, one arm broken and her head injured.

Within three minutes after the crash of the electric car against the auto, a score of people were about the wreck. About a dozen came from the electric car, the front end of which was smashed and glass thrown all over the car. How the motorman escaped injury is a puzzle.

Soon after the word was passed along the streets that there had been an accident, dozens of automobiles and bicycles rushed to the place. Sheriff Ruckdick, Under Sheriff Law and Officer Lacy took down the names of witnesses. Conductor Trask also made a careful list. Two men who were on the car refused to give their names.

The identity of the two visitors was conjectured from envelopes found in the woman's hand-bag. The address indicated that the couple were Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Beard and that they had been stopping at 915 South Olive street, Los Angeles.

Coroner Winbigler arrived and the officers turned the matter over to him. The bodies were moved to the morgue. The fatal wound received by Beard was a blow on the left side of the head, crushing the skull. Cain's skull was crushed on both sides. Aside from these two blows there was no other wound upon Cain's body. Beard had no other serious wound.

Arrived Yesterday

Mr. and Mrs. Beard arrived here yesterday morning shortly before noon, and went to the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce. They had a card of introduction to Secretary J. C. Metzgar from D. W. McDannald, Orange county's representative in the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce. They said they had been in Southern California about three months. They wanted to see the country about Santa Ana and Metzgar walked out with them to see if he could not find someone to take them on a trip. Metzgar introduced them to Cain. Mr. and Mrs. Beard also visited the Wilson & Wilson realty office. The automobile was entered in front of Cain & Drake's office in the Alexandria building on

MACHINE CRASHING OFF BRIDGE, BOGGS DEAD, BERGEY SAFE

Crossing Bridge at High Speed, Auto Went Through Rail--One Man Dead Probably Instantly--Other Resuscitated

Richard Boggs, an Oxnard cattleman, was killed and Gail Bergey of Huntington Beach was almost drowned this morning about 5:30 o'clock when an automobile driven by Boggs went off the bridge across the Santa Ana river at Newport Beach.

Boggs probably met death instantly. Bruises about the head indicate that he was struck a death blow in the wreck. He was rescued a few minutes after the automobile went off the bridge, and was not breathing. Bergey was pulled out a few minutes later, and efforts to revive him were successful.

The automobile, a 50 horse-power Stutz owned by T. B. Talbert of Huntington Beach, for whom Bergey worked, lies in the bottom of the river, a wreck. Two timbers, 2 by 6 inches, were driven entirely through the automobile.

RESIDED THIS COUNTY FOR NINETEEN YEARS

James M. Cain was a big-hearted, kindly man, with hundreds of friends as testimonials to his splendid manhood. He came to this county from Iowa nineteen years ago, and for twelve years was engaged in celery growing at Wintersburg. Seven years ago he moved to Santa Ana and with his wife and four children, Morris A., Willard L., Homer G. and Nita May, the latter aged 10, has lived at 1906 North Main street. For two years he has been in the real estate business with F. D. Drake. Mr. Cain leaves a sister, Mrs. Ed. Haatonstall, at Huntington Beach, a sister, Mrs. Stella L. Durfee, at El Monte and two sisters and a brother in Iowa. Two years ago he was the choice of a caucus of the fifth ward for member of the board of education. On that board he rendered faithful and efficient service. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow from the residence, Rev. Watry of the Unitarian church will officiate.

JOY RIDE ENDS IN EL CENTRO JAIL

Party of Two Boys and Two Girls Caught With Baldwin's Machine

AFRAID TO GO; AFRAID TO STAY

Escapade Starting From West of Fullerton Monday Night Brings Trouble

Joy-riders, two boys and two girls, were arrested at El Centro yesterday with an automobile stolen Monday night by them from O. L. Baldwin, who lives west of Fullerton near the county line. The arrest was made on a description sent out by Sheriff Ruckdick.

Baldwin was here today to swear to a complaint. The quartet will probably be brought here tomorrow. An El Centro dispatch says:

EL CENTRO, April 17.—A "joy-ride," which the participants were afraid to end and afraid to continue, was brought to an abrupt close here today by Sheriff Meadows who took into custody two girls and two boys whom he found riding in an automobile alleged to have been stolen at Fullerton, Cal.

The boys, Guy Woolsey and Charles Moore of Fullerton, each 18 years old, broke down, according to Sheriff Meadows, and confessed that they had taken the automobile for a short "joy ride," but became afraid to go back and yet afraid not to do so.

Therefore, the officer said, the youths, with their companions, Grace Woolsey of Fullerton, Guy's sister, and Selma Pitwin of Los Angeles, each 16 years old, continued their ride from Fullerton to San Diego and were on the way to Phoenix, Ariz., when arrested here.

The girls declared they did not know the automobile had been unlawfully used and asserted they had done nothing wrong.

This morning about 5:30 or 6 o'clock they were running toward Newport Beach. Boggs was driving. The machine was seen crossing the mesa at a high rate of speed.

Two Witnesses

The accident on the bridge was seen by at least two people, Peter Figne, an Italian employed by Emil Myrehn, and Mrs. Jake Souder. They think that the automobile was going thirty or forty miles an hour when it struck the bridge. The bridge has recently been oiled and the rain of last night made the surface slippery.

The driver may have lost control or the car may have skidded a bit. The east rail was struck, and seventy-five feet of it was torn away. The speed of the automobile was such that two pieces of the rail were driven entirely through the car.

The automobile landed in about four feet of tidewater on the east side of the bridge, upon its side.

Figne immediately called Myrehn and the two rushed to the place from Myrehn's house, which is the closest to the bridge. Mrs. Souder called her husband, and he arrived at the bridge soon after Figne and Myrehn.

The men waded into the water, which was up to their waists. Boggs was the first man taken out. It was evident that he was dead.

One of Bergey's legs was seen just sticking out of the water. The three men extricated the man from the machine and took him on to the bridge. He was unconscious from drowning. He was taken to Myrehn's house, and the work of resuscitation was begun. First aid methods were employed. A telephone message was sent to Santa Ana for Dr. Burlew, who arrived in short order. Bergey was already showing signs of life. Bergey may have received a blow and it is possible that that was the reason he did not recover consciousness. About 8 o'clock he was put into Dr. Burlew's automobile and taken to the Santa Ana Hospital.

At first it was thought that there were three men in the automobile when it went off the bridge. That proved to be incorrect. When last seen at Talbert about 4:30 o'clock, Boggs and Bergey were alone. The wrecked machine was searched by fishermen, and no other body was found.

Bergey was under water probably fifteen minutes, with his head down. About 11 o'clock this morning he became conscious, and there is every prospect that he will recover.

"Dick" Boggs was an expert cattleman. He was an educated Cherokee Indian, and was engaged in buying cattle in the Territory and in Texas before coming to California. For some time he has been buying for the Patterson Ranch company of Ventura county. He had arranged to go to Oceanside today with Henry Talbert for a visit on Jerome O'Neill's cattle ranch. He has relatives in Oklahoma.

There are bruises and lacerations on Boggs' chin, nose and forehead, as though he had struck some object heavily. That blow probably killed him.

Three thousand men are idle. Douglas is the son of Dr. James Douglas of New York, president of the Phelps-Dodge Company.

JAPAN CALLS FOR FORCE OF ARMS

Premier Okuma Declares That Declaration of War With U. S. Impends

GOVERNMENT POWERLESS TO SUPPRESS SENTIMENT

Sacramento Senate In Uproar Over Message; Wilson Would Prevent International Feeling

TOKIO, April 18.—In a public speech, former Premier Okuma declared that a declaration of war with America is impending as a result of California's proposed anti-alien land law. He said the government would be powerless to suppress the anti-American sentiment now sweeping the country. The lower classes and many newspapers are insistently demanding war. The situation here is regarded as serious. At a mass meeting today, following a similar one last night, thousands demanded instant retaliation on America. They marched and sang war songs. A certain newspaper writer has outlined plans for the seizure of the Philippines and Hawaii.

Okuma declared that only the influence of Christianity can prevent a conflagration. He said the government does not share the anti-American feeling, but the change of conditions in Japan makes it impossible to restrain popular sentiment.

Timed to show a friendly feeling toward America, Baron Nobaki, foreign minister, was host today at a luncheon for Hamilton Wright Mable of New York. Dr. Peabody and John I. Mott, secretary of the International Y.M.C.A. A cordial spirit prevailed. After luncheon the American guests met several Japanese Christians at Okuma's home. The former premier's speech followed the luncheon. Mott followed Okuma, declaring he believed the influence of Christianity will be superlative.

MASS MEETING LAST NIGHT ALSO DEMANDED WAR

TOKIO, April 19.—A mass meeting of 20,000 people last night hysterically cheered Japanese orators who demanded that the Japanese government resort to arms in the matter of California's proposed anti-alien land bill, now pending before the legislature of that state. The speakers denounced the submissive attitude of the Japanese government. The Tokyo leading newspapers editorially denounced the proceedings of the mass meeting as undignified and unworthy of the nation, declaring the utterances as proceeding from the unthinking extreme element whose feelings had been worked on by political demagogues.

"The Methodist missionaries urge the defeat of all anti-Japanese legislation. The situation here is serious." Senator Sanford cried: "I move an answer be sent telling the gentleman that California can attend to her own business." Bryant seconded the motion.

"There is only one man in the senate who would demean himself by submitting so discourteous a message in a motion," shouted Thompson, turning to Sanford.

Sanford withdrew his motion making another that the message be not entered in the senate journal. Campbell seconded the motion. The senate was in uproar during the voting. The motion barring the message from the journal was lost.

ANTI-ALIEN LAND BILL IS CHIEF INTEREST IN CAPITOL

REGISTER BUILDING BEGINS TO SHOW UP

Large Force Building Tradesmen at Work on New High School

With contractors and builders busy and every indication that they will continue so, Santa Ana has every reason to believe that its building record for 1913 will outdo 1912 by $150,000 to $200,000. The outlook is exceedingly bright, and the growth of the city will proceed uninterrupted, so far as men interested in building matters can see.

In every part of the city carpenters are found at work. Many of the jobs are for new homes. Those who have been estimating the population of Santa Ana have been taking into account the number of new residences, which are going up at the rate of about one new dwelling for every day of the year. Taking the census of 1910 and using new buildings as a basis of figuring, the present population is shown to be not less than 11,500.

The activities in building are to be found in various lines. The Register's two-story brick building at the southwest corner of Third and Sycamore streets has been the center of Contractor Jordan's endeavors the past ten days. He secured the contract from the owner, J. P. Baumgartner, after bids had been received by the owner and architect, Frederick Eley. The permit has just been issued.

Brick work is also being done on the $8000 structure being put up by E. E. Remsburg for the Santa Ana Bathhouse Company on Spurgeon street at the northeast corner of Third.

DITCH USED FIFTY-FOUR YEARS BECOMES PIPELINE; WATER CO. PROSPEROUS

Anaheim Gazette: After a continuous service of 54 years the east-side ditch which brought the first water from the river to Anaheim in 1859, has been replaced for a distance of two miles by a 36-inch cement pipe line. Superintendent Arthur Porter has had a force of 125 men and 25 teams on the job for 16 days, and last week discontinued operations in order to permit water to be served irrigators in this section. Water was turned into the canal on Monday and will probably be continued for 19 days or two weeks. At the end of this time it is proposed to continue work upon the pipe line, which will be constructed to a junction of a pipe line of similar dimensions now running two miles farther west from the Yorba reservoir. When the pipe line is completed, the distance covered from the reservoir will be five and a quarter miles. At present one and a quarter miles of pipe line remains to be laid, and this will be completed within two weeks after resumption of operations. The cost of the entire pipe line will be about $25,000. It will carry a volume of 1800 inches, which increases the capacity of the old earthen ditch 1100 inches.

Construction of the old earthen ditch was begun in 1859, a year following the organization of the colony enterprise in San Francisco, and was completed for the irrigating system of 1859. Its capacity was 700 inches. It was fringed by a willow hedge, and at the four principal roads leading into town a large swinging gate was erected which was closed at night in order to keep from the settlement stock which ranged the valley by thousands. The main canal continued in its present location to the present time, and one of the distributing ditches crossed Center street diagonally from a point where Kistler's bakery now stands, and crossing the street where Beebe's garage is now. The pipe line will bring water from the Yorba reservoir, which was constructed in 1898. The reservoir did away with night irrigation in this section, and is one of the contributing causes to the era of great progress and development which has characterized this locality for ten years past.

Superintendent Porter completed the present line in record time, and but for the necessity of turning in water, would probably have had the entire line completed this week. He has a force of 25 men engaged in making the pipe to be used in the work at a yard on Anna Dierksen's ranch adjoining the ditch, where clean gravel is obtainable, and the cost of hauling is lessened. Two molds are in use, making pipe joints two feet in length, and 300 feet of pipe are turned out daily at this yard. The pipe is made of concrete, one part of cement to four parts gravel, and the walls are three inches thick. Each of the two-foot joints has a weight of 786 pounds. The company's main pipe yard is located at Cowther's corner at pumping plant No. 2, and here also a gang of men is working over time making pipe to be used in construction of pipe line. Three hundred feet of pipe are also turned out here daily, making a total of 600 feet from the two yards. A carload of cement is used daily, or three carloads the new polytechnic high school buildings. The walls of the manual arts and fine arts buildings are now well along, and large forces of men are kept busy by the general contractors. The cornerstone of the new polytechnic will be laid on May 2. The cornerstone will be in the administration building, the largest of the group of three buildings.

Fullerton's Building Record Is Forty-Nine Permits Since January First

San Diego Man Brought Action Here Today Against Santa Fe Railroad

Complaint Alleges F. C. Allen Was Forced Off Train and Was Killed

Declaring that the Santa Fe railroad is responsible for the death of his son, J. W. Allen of San Diego has brought suit against the railroad for $12,500 damages. The son, F. C. Allen, was killed at the Santa Fe depot here on Oct. 23, 1912.

Allen had been drinking. He bought a ticket from Los Angeles to Santa Ana, but endeavored to ride on to San Diego, where his parents lived. He was put off the train here. He tried to get on again when the train was in motion. The complaint alleges that he was then forced off the steps and was killed. The complaint states that Allen was 25 years old, a brakeman and motorman earning $75 a month, the main support of his parents. Clifford & Pease of San Diego and E. E. Keech of Santa Ana are attorneys for the plaintiff, who is suing as administrator of his son's estate.

Out on Probation

Floyd Davidson today pleaded guilty to battery and was given probation. Davidson was arrested for firing a bullet through a wall at Brea, the bullet striking Charlie Wolf who was on the other side of the wall. Davidson was merely shooting up the town and had no intention of hitting anybody. Judge West fined him $1000, and with-held execution, which means that Davidson had better keep to the straight and narrow path.

Case on Appeal

Today there was filed in the superior court an appeal from Justice Fulton's court at Orange. The action was one in which Glenn L. Martin, the aviator, sued S. P. Keeney for $202.20, due on an automobile. Keeney put in a cross-complaint for commissions, and got judgment for $11.33 and $33.90 costs. Attorney H. J. Forgy for Martin took an appeal.

Triangle League Meet; Roosevelt School Is the Winner of the Banner

The banner offered by the Y. M. C. A. of Santa Ana for the school winning the most points in the track meet of the Triangle League boys of the Santa Ana schools was won yesterday by the Roosevelt school, the scores being: Roosevelt, 85; Lincoln, 75; McKinley, 52; Spurgeon, 35, and Jefferson, 9.

The boys were divided by weight into five classes and competed only against those of the same weight class. The meet was under the direction of Robert J. Hamilton, county secretary of the Y. M. C. A., assisted by Bert West, Frank West, Ernest Plavan, Paul Anderson, Harold Snow, Floyd Geyer, Dana Keech and others. The results of the different events was as follows:

In the unlimited weight class the 100 yard dash was won by Paul Plavan, Eugene Trago, and R. J. Mitchell, in the order given; standing broad jump, Plavan, Trago, Fry; running broad jump, Plavan, Trago, Sweet; baseball throw, Plavan, Trago, Johnson; high jump, Fry first, Plavan and Trago, tied; shot-put, Plavan 35 feet, Fry, Mitchell; relay race won by Roosevelt, Spurgeon, Lincoln.

In the 111 to 125 pound class: 100 yard, Monroe, Despart, Meyers; standing broad jump, Vanderlip, Despart, Meyers; running broad jump, Despart, Vanderlip, Ireland; baseball throw, Monroe, Vanderlip, Despart; high jump, Vanderlip, Meyers, Despart; shot-put, Meyers, Despart, Ireland.

In the 96 to 110 pound class: 100 yard dash, Birkhead, Burrell; standing broad, Burrell, Birkhead; running broad jump, Birkhead, Burrell; baseball throw, Burrell, Birkhead; high jump, Birkhead, Burrell; relay race, Lincoln, McKinley.

In the 81 to 95 pound class: 75 yard dash, Herd, Raney, Martin; standing broad jump, Martin, Homer Anderson, Nieblas; running broad jump, Martin, Nieblas, Herd; baseball throw, Nieblas, Herd, Kramer; relay race, Lincoln, McKinley, Spurgeon.

In the 60 to 80 pound class: 50 yard dash, Barker, Wilkinson, Claude Carl; standing broad, Geo. Wilson, Carl Barker; running broad, Malcolm Finley, Barker, Geo. Gerwing; relay race, Roosevelt, Spurgeon, McKinley.

In the regular track events 25 boys won ribbons and others won ribbons in the relay races.

The ribbons and the banner were presented at the close of the meet and the boys took them away, very proud of "something accomplished, something done." The boys who failed to win a ribbon were consoled by the thought that "twas better to have tried and failed, than n'er have tried at all."

The next big event of the Triangle League is the final track meet for all the schools of the county, which will be held on Lincoln athletic grounds, May 10. This is open to all boys who are members of the league, and every one making all the required records in his weight class will be given a bronze button badge. In the morning of the same day the county spelling contest will be held, the winner in the seventh grade and the winner in the eighth grade each being presented with a cup.

IN THE JUSTICE COURT

FINED $5 FOR TOSSING ROCK

Evidence Shows That After the Start the Jap Was Easily the Aggressor

The five high school boys who were charged with disturbing the peace of G. Nishikawa were before Justice Cox this morning, and when all was done and said Lawrence Eaton was fined $5, the case dismissed against Robert Paine and Louis Briggs and Boyd Preble and Ellsworth. Minor were certified to the Juvenile Court, they being under 18 years of age. The evidence throughout showed that Eaton and the Jap were the principal actors in the serious comedy.

In fact, the case against Paine was dismissed before the trial began, it appearing that he was in the audience and not on the stage when the curtain raised for the first act.

Eaton and Briggs pleaded not guilty and were tried. Perhaps the clearest story was that told by George Kroil. He saw the Jap get off his bicycle and start toward the boys. He heard Eaton tell the Jap repeatedly to go on away. Finally, pressed by the Jap, Eaton hit him. Eaton finally walked away and the Jap armed himself with a couple of rocks and half a brick, got on his bicycle and followed. The Jap threw a rock at Eaton while riding, and fell. He scrambled after Eaton, and again there was a mix-up in which Eaton punched with the right and punched with the left, but failed to keep the Jap away. The Jap was not much with his fists but he was good with his teeth, and he bit Eaton twice on the legs and had him tight by a finger when Cecil Dubois jumped off the street car and choked the Jap so that Eaton's finger could be gently withdrawn from the Jap's mouth.

Eaton stated that the whole thing started when he tossed a rock at the Jap. The Jap said the rock hit him. After hearing the evidence of the Jap, who said he did not throw a rock at Eaton, though everybody else said he did, C. R. Munson, Cecil Dubois and the boys, Justice Cox dismissed the case against Briggs, but he tied a fine of $5 on Eaton, and Eaton paid. The justice said the reason he fined Eaton was that Eaton threw the rock.

Eaton wants the district attorney's office to give him a warrant for the arrest of the Jap, but as yet he has not secured one.

Found Not Guilty

Justice Cox found G. H. Marshall of San Juan Capistrano not guilty of improper conduct. The trial ended yesterday. Clyde Bishop defended Marshall.

MOTHER! WATCH THE CHILDREN'S BOWELS

If Cross, Feverish, Sick or Tongue Coated Give "Syrup of Figs"

Every mother immediately realizes after giving her child delicious Syrup of Figs that this is the ideal laxative and physic for the children. Nothing else regulates the little one's stomach, liver and 30 feet of tender bowels so promptly, besides they dearly love its delicious fig taste.

If your child isn't feeling well; resting nicely; eating regularly and acting naturally it is a sure sign that its little insides need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or your little one has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, tongue coated, give a teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs and in a few hours all the foul, constipated, clogged up waste, undigested food and sour bile will gently move on and out of its little bowels without nausea, griping or weakness, and you will surely have a well, happy and smiling child again shortly.

With Syrup of Figs you are not drugging your children, being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics, it cannot be harmful. Mothers should always keep Syrup of Figs handy. It is the only stomach, liver and bowel cleanser and regulator needed—a little given today will save a sick child tomorrow.

Full directions for children of all ages and grown-ups plainly printed on the package.

Ask your druggist for the full name, "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," prepared by the California Fig Syrup Co. This is the delicious tasting, genuine old reliable. Refuse anything else offered.

"Fried Fish To-day."

Cottolene is better than butter or lard for frying because it can be heated about 100 degrees higher without burning or smoking. This extreme heat instantly cooks the outer surface, and forms a crust which prevents the absorption of fat.

Cottolene

Fry fish with Cottolene and it will never be greasy, but crisp and appetizing enough to make your mouth water.

Cottolene is more economical than lard; costs no more, and goes one-third farther than either butter or lard.

You are not practicing economy if you are not using Cottolene in your kitchen.

The difference between good and poor workmanhip in men's clothes is as noticeable as that between an "old master" and an amateur artist's daub on canvas.

Our clothes—to achieve their perfection—are hand-tailored. And rich trimmings and finishing touches, deemed unnecessary in ordinary clothes making, are painstakingly needed by skilled tailors.

That is why the effect of your Hill, Carden Suit is that of expressiveness, taste and refinement—in itself a distinction.

Good workmanship, therefore, is a necessity of exclusive fashionable dress.

THE DEATH DRIVE

It will probably never be known just how or why James M. Cain, a man in the prime of life, and with vision, hearing, activity and strength unimpaired, should drive his automobile in front of an onrushing electric car—a veritable death drive for himself and his passengers. But it is highly probable that he did it because his attention—his mind's eye and mind's ear—was not on his driving; because he did not know, acutely and realizingly, that he was approaching a railroad crossing; or because he did not realize the speed and momentum with which his car was moving.

If Mr. Cain had been THINKING about crossing a railroad track, and the ever-present danger of doing so without being ABSOLUTELY SURE that no car is approaching, it seems that he could not have failed to see or hear the car that dashed him to his death, in time to stop and avoid the fatal collision.

There is no shadow of censure in this writing. It is simply an attempt to think out and express the problem that confronts all drivers—the problem of how to avoid accidents. Means of rapid and luxurious transportation exact a terrible toll, and every thought and expression that will tend to reduce that toll is worth while.

But detailed discussion and analysis of the circumstances of the triple tragedy are useless. The point of this writing is that probably nine drivers out of ten—not only drivers of autos but drivers of horses—are at times inattentive. It is probably not too strong a statement to say they are to some extent inattentive at most times. And while electric car drivers and drivers of locomotive engines on railroads are less liable to err in giving insufficient attention, they are not free from weakness and even guilt in this respect.

Mr. Cain and his passengers were probably the victims of Mr. Cain's enthusiasm as a "booster" for Orange county and his devotion to his business as a real estate salesman. He was probably talking and thinking about the business in hand, his mind intent upon it; or he may have become absorbed in some wholly public-spirited presentation of the beauty and fruitfulness of Orange county, or in the conversation of his passengers—who will ever know?

But it matters not. Again the point is that he MUST have been thinking of SOMETHING else more intently than of his driving. And that is what all of us who drive do to greater or less extent. It is wrong. When driving, we should give our first and best attention to our driving. All else should be secondary.

As to the railroad and the driver of the car that yesterday dealt death, we await the verdict of the coroner's jury. In general it may be said that people demand rapid transit and would set up a great hue and cry of protest if electric or steam trains slowed down at every crossing. It is, however, as much the duty of engineers and motormen as of auto drivers to make sure the crossing they are approaching is free from danger. Every possible safeguard should be employed.

In the tragic death of Mr. Cain, Santa Ana loses a good and useful citizen and his family a loving husband and father. Our heartfelt sympathy goes out to his wife and children.

Mr. Cain was a member of the Santa Ana Board of Education, in the work of which he was deeply interested and highly efficient. He was also in every sense one of the county's leading real estate operators, and a good business man and citizen in every way. His death is a distinct loss to the community.

To the relatives and friends of the strangers within our gates who met death so unexpectedly our sympathy goes out in full measure. What can be done to help and comfort them has been and will be done with loving hearts and hands.

THE TARIFF BILL

In much of the discussion of the new tariff measure, it probably will be described as the "Underwood bill." Possibly it would be more exact to describe it as the "Wilson-Underwood bill," for there is no doubt that, if it depended upon Mr. Underwood alone to supply the chief element of driving power, the bill as finally enacted would not bear much resemblance to the measure he introduced on the opening day of the session. The real force behind the bill is the president.

Mr. Wilson has done a number of things since his election quite out of the ordinary presidential course, but he has done nothing more extraordinary than his ambitious attempt, before the bill was made public, to effect an agreement upon it between senate and house leaders, so that it should go through practically unchanged. Moreover, there are many indications now that he has been largely successful, and it will not be particularly surprising to find his bill going through both house and senate unamended in any important particular.

There are numerous elements of dissatisfaction in the bill. Many Democrats in both house and senate are vigorously opposed to several of its provisions. They would be glad to see important changes made. If they dared, they would fight for these changes, but they do not dare. Mr. Wilson has been successful in his first move, for the bill is accepted widely as a smashing reduction of rates, and already there is much talk to the effect that the result is bound to be a substantial decrease in the cost of living. Many articles of daily consumption by all the people either go on the free list or sustain substantial cuts in duties. This is really the paramount performance of the bill. The promise of the democratic campaign was to reduce the cost of living, and the chief method which the Democrats promised to employ in bringing about such a reduction was just this kind of a smashing cut in tariff rates. So the test of fulfillment of that promise will come when the pending reduction becomes law and has had reasonable opportunity to operate.

Both Republicans and Democrats display interesting anxiety over the situation. Many Democrats are desperately afraid that the bill will produce hard times and possibly panic. Many Republicans are afraid that it will not. The Democrats hope, but do not know, that the bill will fulfill their campaign promises. The Republicans hope, but do not know, that it will smash industry as well as rates and afford an opportunity for a renewal of the old standpat cry for tariff privilege.

The fact is, nobody knows what the bill will do, just as nobody knows exactly the reason for any particular provision in it. The bill has been made in exactly the same manner and by the same methods that previous Republican bills were made, on secret information rather than on data obtainable by the general public. The Democratic ways and means committee went through the perfunctory farce of holding public hearings, just as the Republican ways and means committee did. The same kind of testimony was given on each occasion. Mr. Underwood ostensibly used this testimony to justify one set of his rates, just as Mr. Payne ostensibly used his testimony to justify his rates. In each case, if there was any positive information on which the rates were based, it was conveyed to the authors of the bill in secret and has never been made public. The Democratic method of tariff making is exactly as much a sham as was the Republican method. The Democrats talk of the "principle of tariff for revenue only;" the Republicans talk of the "principle of high protection." Neither side has the support of scientifically obtained authentic information. Each writes a tariff bill by guesswork and by "rule of thumb."

WOMEN'S FADS AND FANCIES

By Margaret Mason

NEW YORK, April 18.—There are a great many things going on under cover these days, but a great many more coming off. Corsets and petticoats have been discarded with reckless abandon and new combinations are dropping off the shoulders like petals from the last rose of summer.

To be sure to attain just the proper "uncorseted figure it is paradoxically necessary to have the most carefully fitted corset. Milady is svelte indeed who can afford to shod that all-embracing article altogether. She will find it safer and snugger to select one of the new models, long of hip, low of bust and stout of material—and gird herself therein. The very newest stays are all below the belt with the bust left unsupported. For the really buxom beauty, however, the brassieres have reached such a state of perfection that any figure may be neat if not exactly natty.

Though once cast aside, the petticoat is now being welcomed back like a prodigal son, and many a "fatted calf" is being prepared for its coming. The 1913 model seems born anew in a more ethereal form of filmy lace and diaphanous chiffon. As your skirt is slashed, so must your petticoat be and this offers many possibilities for decoration.

Made of azure, pink or white crepe de chine, trimmed in lace or point d'esprit, they are truly irresistible. Van Dyke points of German val set in the bottom of a skirt, each point sparkling with a tiny brilliant, give individuality to one effective model. Deep ruffles of pleated lace or net caught with rosettes of ribbon or tiny chiffon rosebuds make another exquisite finish. Silk naut is another popular lingerie material that is sharing honors with fine batiste or the new voile linon which is extremely sheer and launders beautifully.

Combinations in all these materials are most attractive cut on princess lines, the seams being joined with lace insertion or entre deux. Shown in the new drop-off-the-shoulder effects they draw up with a ribbon straight around under the arm pits and over the bust; sometimes they are given a more stable appearance by a narrow flesh color ribbon band over each shoulder. They are the necessary out- come of the transparent bodices and shirring and tiny tucks, insets of lace and embroidery, rosettes, rosebuds ty is that all this sham fighting shall cease; that there shall be created, first of all, a permanent, independent, non-partisan, expert tariff commission with ample power and means to secure complete, reliable information upon all subjects entering into tariff legislation. Thus there would be furnished to everybody, high-tariff, low-tariff and no-tariff men alike, the fullest information concerning every item of a tariff bill. With such assistance, congress would work intelligently in tariff legislation. Midnight meetings with the chairman of the ways and means committee or of the finance committee would no longer avail "special interests," whether these "special interests" were manufacturers demanding high rates or importers asking for low rates.

Where to Next?

"If 'into' and 'out' are in good usage, why not 'out'?" demands the Times. And if "out," why not "up" and "down" and "under" and "over"?"—Manchester Union.

claiming almost undivided attention. Two of the proposed amendments receiving the most consideration are by Birdsall. One provides that corporations, a majority of the stock of which is in the hands of aliens eligible to citizenship, can own land. The other is drawn with the idea of protecting loans of foreign banks and exempts lands devoted to lumber, oil, mining and shipping industries.

Protests are arriving daily from scores of sources urging that there be no discrimination made against Japan. Action on the bill in the Senate is not expected for several days.

RECORD ATTENDANCE

Ladies of Altar Society Turned Out In Force at Yesterday's Meeting at Lopez Home

With both attendance and collection surpassing that of previous meetings, the Altar Society of St. Joseph's Catholic Church met yesterday afternoon at the Tenth street home of Mrs. Olive Lopez. The hostess, who is a busy woman, had taken an "afternoon off" in order to entertain the ladies and was greatly delighted to welcome so many of them as assembled yesterday. The living room was garnished with dainty "onion eyes," those pretty blue flowers that deserve a better name, and with purple sweet peas, the first of the season. African daisies and ferns in baskets made a rich decoration for the dining room.

The ladies having undertaken the refurnishing of the priest's house for the new pastor, Father Eummelen, were busy in the hemming of tea towels. A prize was offered for the swiftest sewing, the test being made on one towel only. Mrs. George W. Young was the most expeditious seamstress and won the pretty handkerchief offered as the trophy. Besides the towels to go to the priest's house, there were a number hemmed for sale. Indeed there were fifty of the towels hemmed and these already laundered will be desirable purchases for busy housewives.

A table had been covered with twenty articles pertaining to the church and the ladies, walking around the table, were asked to jot down as many of the articles as they noticed in the fleeting glances possible in the passing. Miss Katie Anselmino succeeded in seeing sixteen of the twenty articles and was given a pretty pin tray for her keen observation. Mrs. J. W. Wager was consoled with a small gray owl which bore the inscription "Get Wise."

A social half hour followed the sewing and the contests, and during this period delicious home-made cake and coffee were served. The ladies enjoyed chatting over the cake and coffee, and all were glad to welcome Mrs. George Shelton, who has been absent for four months. Mrs. Shelton was for a long time secretary-treasurer of the Altar Society.

Mrs. Townsend, who has been visiting relatives in Southern California for the past four months, will leave for her home in Denver, Colo., on Monday, March 21. She is well pleased with California and expects to return here this fall to make her future home. She will probably locate in Santa Ana.

Reception for President

Thursday noon sixteen members of the Emma Sanson Chapter, U.D.C., sat down to a delightful luncheon in honor of the state president, Mrs. Dunlap, at the home of Mrs. J. A. Turner. The house was beautifully decorated in the chapter colors, red and white. Roses were used to carry out the color scheme. Pennants of the southern states were also used.

In the afternoon the chapter and their friends listened to an interesting address by Mrs. Dunlap, who told of the charity work done by the Los Angeles chapters, and incidents of the South during the war and after. Refreshments of ice cream and cake closed an enjoyable afternoon.

To the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. H. S. Kennedy the bride unattended was preceded by little Miss Kathleen Trago and Master Jack Congden as ring bearers. The bride was met at the altar by the groom and given away by her father, Dewitt C. Willard, the ring ceremony being used with Rev. J. B. Habbick officiating.

The bride was gowned in a gray tailored suit and picture hat. The house was beautifully decorated with roses and carnations.

SHAKESPEAREAN RECITAL AT HUNTINGTON BEACH

Chas. E. W. Griffith, who is said by Robert E. Mantell, the greatest Shakespearean tragedian in America, to be the greatest reader of Shakespeare in the new or the old world today, will give a Shakespearean recital at Huntington Beach on April 23, in the Auditorium in that city.

It is expected that large delegations will be present from the neighboring cities as Mr. Griffith will not give more than half a dozen lectures in Southern California. Huntington Beach is preparing to accommodate all visitors. Reservations of seats may be made by phone or mail with Melvin Puster. The tickets have been priced at fifty cents.

Of Mr. Griffith the University Chronicle, Cambridge, England, says: "The Guildhall was packed on Wednesday evening when Mr. C. E. W. Griffith, the well-known Shakespearean reciter, gave a wonderful reading of 'King Lear.' It is no exaggeration to say in the words of one enthusiast, that it was the finest reading ever heard in this town, and his grand interpretation of Shakespeare's great tragedy will long linger in the memories of those who were fortunate in being present."

North Main street, directly after Cain had returned from lunch.

After the accident there was a rumor to the effect that two or three small children had been left at a hotel by the couple. This has been proven untrue. The couple had no small children, and none of their children are in California.

It was known that the couple were from Ohio. This was further established by a letter found in Beard's pocket from Attorneys Talbott & Talbott of Gallon, O., stating that $1568.50 had been paid on a note by a Mr. Bauer and placed in the bank to Beard's credit.

E. Poister, a traveling man from Los Angeles, saw the remains. He said that he knew Beard in Gallon, that he was well thought of and was an employee of the Erie railroad. Poister said he knew Beard's grown son well.

From the Los Angeles address, it was learned that Mrs. Beard had a brother, C. E. Evans, at Sawtelle. He arrived here early this morning. He says Beard was 52 years old, and Mrs. Beard 45.

Mass of Wreckage

Cain bought the $2250 Cadillac two months ago. Of the entire car all that is left intact are the engine and rear axle. The left side of the frame is bent in where the terrific impact of the car was taken. Seats, carburetor and other portions of the car are damaged beyond use. While the wheels were torn off, three of the tires were not punctured. The automobile came to a stop in an upright position seventy-five feet south of the south line of the McFadden street crossing.

Coroner's Jury

On the coroner's jury summoned by Constable Jackson for the inquest at 2 o'clock this afternoon were Charles Ross, D. L. Anderson, J. W. Bishop, M. Smith, H. W. Lawrence, Clarence Meacham and J. W. Carlyle.

The Inquest

The inquest upon the three bodies was held jointly.

The first witness called at the inquest at 2 o'clock today was W. O. Ater of Talbert, a passenger on the electric car. He felt the collision but did not know until afterward what was hit. He thought the auto engine was killed on the track. The car ran about 100 yards before it stopped. The car was going fast. He helped extricate Cain and Beard, who were gasping their last as they were laid on the ground.

Eugene Adams, 606 McFadden street, a boy, was in the road near the crossing. He saw the automobile slow up and stop with the front part of the machine in the center of the tracks. He thought Cain tried to stop before reaching the tracks. He heard the electric car whistle a block or so before it reached the crossing, and again when it got closer.

G. R. Maston, Los Angeles, a conductor, sat in the forward part of the electric car. He saw the auto first forty yards from the track as the electric car whistled. He saw the auto stop before reaching the track, then start up. It had stopped twelve feet from the track, then went ahead, and stopped still on the track when the electric car was a car length and a half away. Just after the first stop Maston saw Cain lean out and look at the car, then the auto moved ahead onto the track. The auto was standing still when struck.

V. J. Thatcher, Los Angeles, an ex-conductor, sat with Maston. When he first saw the auto, the motorman had thrown on the emergency 100 feet from the crossing, and the auto was then ten feet from the track. He thought Cain was trying to stop, then perhaps decided to get across.

E. M. Redmon, passenger, who lives southwest of Santa Ana, saw the auto coming rather fast. "The auto slowed down, then it appeared to me that he tried to beat it across," said the witness. The electric car slid until it stopped. The rails were wet. It was sliding when the collision occurred. The car was going about thirty miles.

Mrs. C. A. Butterfield, Newport Beach, saw the auto first just before it came upon the track as the motorman blew his whistle the second time.

Dr. Wehrly described the injuries received by the three persons killed.

F. E. Bates, the motorman, said he blew the whistle at the regular posts 1000 feet from the crossing. Seeing the auto, he blew again and the auto slowed down, then started up again and stopped on the track. Bates had no time to get off his stool. He applied his brakes when he saw Cain was not going to stop. When twelve feet from the track, Cain slowed so Bates thought he was going to stop, but Cain's auto lurched forward and stopped on the tracks.

USES HIS AUTO FOR SAWING WOOD

Long Beach Man's Ingenuity to Save Labor Results in Most Remarkable Invention

TRANSMITS POWER
FROM AUTO WHEELS

Eugene W. Moore, Builder of
Bungalows, Offered $50,000
For Right But Refuses It

While the automobile has revolutionized vehicle traffic all over the world and the manufacture of cars has become one of the most important industries in the United States, it has remained for a Long Beach man with a simple invention to give a practical turn to the automobile, altogether undreamed of heretofore by auto owners or manufacturers.

Eugene W. Moore, designer and builder of Long Beach Bungalows, residing at 461 West Sixth street, is the inventor of a power transmission apparatus upon which he was granted a patent by the United States government March 18 of this year. His invention was conceived in his attempt to use his auto in sawing lumber for his bungalows.

As told by the Long Beach Press, Mr. Moore's device is as simple as it is ingenious. It derives power from the driving wheels of auto vehicles and transmits the power to machinery to grind feed, saw wood, churn butter, pump water and a thousand and one other useful things about the shop, home and farm.

Saws Wood and Churns Butter. Equipped with the invention which is being perfected by Moore, the farmer can drive home from town and instead of allowing the machine to stand idle in the shed for the remainder of the week, set it to work pumping water to irrigate the alfalfa.

When done with that task, it can be turned loose on the woodpile and after cutting up the winter supply of stove-wood might be taken to the house, where mother will introduce it to the churn and turn out the week's supply of butter.

Altogether, the automobile, if this device fulfills its promise, will become even more useful than it is now and instead of remaining longer in the luxury class will be numbered

ARRANGEMENTS FOR REGISTER DELIVERY AT MYFORD AND LAGUNA

The Santa Ana Register subscribers at Myford and Laguna Beach will be able to get their papers the same evening on which the papers are published owing to the arrangements which have just been made with Mr. Frazier, proprietor of the Laguna Beach garage and stage.

The stage leaves Santa Ana twice every day, once at 10 a.m. and also at 4:30 in the evening, from the Salt Lake office. The papers will be sent to Myford and to Laguna Beach each evening on the 4:30 car, and subscribers at Myford can call for their papers at the postoffice after 5 p.m. and the papers will be left at the Laguna Beach garage instead of at the postoffice, where the papers will be distributed.

As the Register is the only paper having this prompt service to these points, people who would like the paper the same evening that it is published should phone their order to this office. The service will begin Saturday, April 19.

among the necessities of every well ordered family who can afford it.

The apparatus by which the power is transmitted to other agencies can be covered with a low platform upon which the auto can be run by an easy incline. The driving wheels of the automobile run on belts connecting two pulleys or smaller wheels which operate the machinery.

Moore first designed his contrivance while residing in Gardena in 1911, and made application for a patent in December of that year. His home has been in Long Beach for the last ten years, and it is there that he plans to launch the manufacture of his invention, if possible.

He is said to have been offered $50,000 for the exclusive right of its manufacture in this country, but refused.

AMUSEMENTS

The inimitable Eddie Foy, with his quaint smile, his humorous eyes and his own peculiar style, comes to the Grand Opera House Tuesday, April 22. He brings the Globe Theater musical comedy success, "Over the River," which for six months entertained New Yorkers, and the seven little Foyes.

Mr. Foy's coming to a city always arouses pleasant anticipation and all the more so this season, for here is a musical comedy that pleased New York for six months. The song hits were the whistling favorites on Broadway, including "The Broadway Cabaret," "Ring-Ting-a-Ling," "New York Isn't Such a Bad Old Town," "The Raggedy Man," "Chop Stick Rag," "Mexican," "My Tango Maid," and "When There's No Light at All." It was during the New York engagement that the phrase was coined, "Foy for Joy."

Foy first appears as the man about town who is giving his friends a good time. He is present during a wild scene in a Broadway cafe, and ends up in the police court with a sentence to thirty days "over the river." For one act he is hiding his identity beneath a suit of stripes on Blackwell's Island, where his native wit and comedy make him the pet of the women engaged in prison reform. He serves his "time" and returns home and finds himself in the midst of a garden party of senioritas and Mexican gaiety arranged by his unsuspecting wife as a welcome for the missing husband.

Mr. M. N. Matthews, who was about a year and a half ago connected with the advertising department of the Fullerton Tribune, gives for publication the story of his marvelous cure from a bad case of inflammatory Rheumatism. We publish in the "Register" his own words, that the public may know that we have brought to Santa Ana the greatest curative power yet discovered. Offices, Rooms 4 and 5, Central Block, Santa Ana.

Read Mr. Matthews' own statement: Vito Nuevo Mineral Water Co., City.

Long Beach, Cal., April 5, 1913.

Gentlemen:

Some four weeks ago I had occasion to visit your offices on a matter other than taking a course of treatment of your famous water. At the time I was suffering and had been for several weeks, with a severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism, being treated by several physicians with only temporary relief. Unsolicited upon your part I asked several questions in regard to your treatment and the results that I might expect. I was told that your treatment would cure me and was shown several photographs and testimonials from different parts of the country, of cures that your water had made. After several days' consideration of the matter, all the time I was continually getting worse, I decided to take your treatment, but not until I was taken down in bed; it being necessary for me to be lifted in and out of bed, could not move hand or foot. I commenced your treatment and in ten days I was able to sit up.

WHITE RIBBONERS IN ANNUAL CONVENTION

Orange County W.C.T.U. Holds Largely Attended Two Days' Meeting at El Modena and Villa Park

The twenty-fourth annual convention of Orange County W. C. T. U. opened yesterday at El Modena church in a two days session. Today's session of the convention was held in Villa Park, and consisted largely of business, including the election of officers and superintendents of departments, and the adoption of resolutions. Aside from these the principal features of the program were to be the address given by Mrs. Lucy Blanchard, state W.C.T.U. president, and the reading of a prize essay. A full report of today's meeting will appear in tomorrow's Register.

Officers for the ensuing year are as follows: President, Mrs. Belle Rogers; 1st vice president, Mrs. Maggie Rawlings; 2nd vice president, Mrs. Elizabeth Durham, El Modena; corresponding secretary, Mrs. D. Gervaeas, Anaheim; recording secretary, Mrs. Lea Warren, Santa Ana; assistant recording secretary, Mrs. C. A. Miller, Tustin; treasurer, Mrs. J. E. Kellogg, Santa Ana; assistant treasurer, Mrs. S. M. Brown, Tustin; auditor, Mrs. Horace McPhee, Santa Ana.

YESTERDAY'S SESSION WAS MARKED BY BIG ATTENDANCE

(By Mrs. Lea Warren.) The twenty-fourth of the always interesting county W.C.T.U. conventions opened at 10 o'clock yesterday at El Modena, this being one of the two pretty foothill towns selected for the holding of the 1913 convention. Villa Park was chosen for the second day's session.

An unusually large attendance marked the opening of the convention yesterday morning in the El Modena church, over one hundred being present. The union at El Modena had made the church most beautiful with an abundance of roses, lilies, bridal wreath and other floral decorations. Mrs. Norman, county president; Recording Secretary Mrs. Lea Warren, and County Treasurer Mrs. Frances Paine, occupied the platform, Mrs. Norman presiding at all the sessions. Mrs. Stanfield of El Modena led the devotional service. The following committees were appointed:

Press—Mrs. Warren and Mrs. Shaw of Santa Ana; Mrs. Smith, Garden Grove; Mrs. Remington, Fullerton; Mrs. Yeoman, Anaheim; Mrs. Miller, White Ribbon.

Credentials—Mrs. Shaw, Mrs. McPhee and Mrs. Hill. Courtesies—Mrs. Gervaeas, Mrs. Utt.

Pages—Eleanor Egge and Marie Thomas.

Exchange of greetings was given by the hostess, Mrs. Durham of El Modena, the response being given by Mrs. F. H. McElree of Santa Ana. All joined in singing the "Orange County Song" composed by the late Mrs. Hill of Garden Grove.

The year's reports were given by Mrs. Lea Warren, recording secretary; Mrs. J. E. Kellogg, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Frances Paine, treasurer. The balance in the treasury is $56.75. Mrs. G. P. Hill, secretary of the Young People's work, introduced the officers and a number of the Santa Ana "Y" girls.

A splendid demonstration was given by Anaheim Union, which had made a gain of one hundred members in the year, two members, Mrs. Gervaeas and Mrs. Foster, getting 72 members. These ladies, who had worked so faithfully, were given flowers, and a poem composed by Mrs. Sunderland for the occasion was read. The president, Mrs. E. B. Norman, gave her most excellent annual message to the convention relating to the vital questions of the day. At the close of the message the convention made Mrs. Norman and Mrs. Anna Hill life members of the county. The county having paid over $40 for state work, the county union was entitled to two life members, and this honor was conferred on two worthy members.

Mrs. Johnson, a very aged lady, read a poem on "The Prodigal Girl." Mrs. Murray, county evangelistic superintendent, conducted a memorial service for Mrs. Dr. Mansur, a member of the Santa Ana union, and Miss Juanita Metzgar of the Santa Ana "Ys," who had passed to the beyond within the year.

The convention adjourned for noon luncheon, which was served in the dining room. The ladies of El Modena serving coffee. Following the midday intermission the president called the convention to order at 1:45 o'clock. Mrs. L. H. Mills of Santa Ana, led the devotions, and Mrs. J. C. Stearns of Tustin sang a favorite hymn of Mrs. Mills.

A splendid demonstration was given by the Spanish school children of El Modena, of songs and readings. They were accompanied by their teacher, Miss White, who must have splendid ability in order to bring out what the children know and have been taught. As the education of the Spanish was a question before the convention, a place on the program having been allotted to that subject, the convention was fortunate in securing the teacher of the Spanish children of the Santa Ana schools to address the meeting. Mr. Davis, Mrs. Tyrman and Mr. Baker were the speakers. Mr. Davis told of the work the pupils were doing in gardening, carpentry, cobbling and making baskets. He said some money had been made selling tomato plants and for tables the boys had made for the Tustin school. The money received from that source was expended in a cobbler's outfit, and the boys are now learning to mend shoes.

Mrs. Tyrman told of the work being done with the Spanish children. The main object was to teach them to be clean and neat and to not depend on others but to be independent, and also in this way the mothers are reached. The teachers found the lunches the children brought were not suitable for school children, so the use of the domestic science kitchen was secured and a good lunch was provided at noon, the children paying a penny or a few pennies for it thereby teaching them that they should not secure those things free. Mr. Baker, of the Santa Ana high school, spoke of visiting the Spanish homes and the apartment houses where the Spanish families live, thereby coming in touch with the home life of the children. Mr. Baker is hoping to get data soon that will greatly aid in the education of these children.

A very interesting symposium on family culture was held. Mrs. Murphy taking the place of Mrs. George Short in speaking on the subject: "What Are Parents' Responsibilities Concerning Children's Amusements?" Mrs. E. P. Stafford read an excellent paper on "Influence of Work on Character," and Mrs. Harry Lewis had a splendid paper on "Courtesy in the Home." These papers were all excellent and it was suggested that they be passed on for others to enjoy.

Mrs. J. C. Stearns gave a charming vocal solo, being accompanied by Miss Lucas of Santa Ana.

OPPORTUNITY FOR BETTER FACILITIES FOR TEACHING GEOGRAPHY IN THE SCHOOLS

Schools Urged to Use Topographic Maps—United States Geological Survey Will Make Special Selections for Use of Any School or College

For teaching the geography of the United States in the public schools and colleges a strong effort is being made by the United States Geological Survey to foster the use of the government topographic maps. These maps contain so many details of local interest, showing even the school houses and farm houses as well as every wagon road, with which of course the school children are familiar, that it is said to be an easy matter for teachers to enlist the interest of the pupils in this new type of school map. From an understanding of the particular maps representing their own localities it is but a succession of short steps to lead the pupils to an appreciation of the different types of country portrayed on maps of other sections of the United States. Most of the standard atlas sheets of the Geological Survey of recent issue are printed on the scale of 1 mile to 1 inch, a scale which shows the physical features of the country in very interesting detail.

Show Altitudes at All Points With these maps the pupils can determine the altitude of their homes and the steepness of hills and mountains, estimate the grade of wagon roads, work out simple engineering problems such as the drainage of swamps, select dam sites for the construction of reservoirs to supply water to imaginary towns or for irrigation, lay out imaginary trolley or railroad lines or canals along the most feasible routes, establish lookout and signal stations on high points for the control of forest fires, and plan many other similar activities.

Government Will Cooperate With Teachers The Geological Survey has published 4,491 packages BY L. A. PARCEL POST WITHIN FOUR DAYS

Illustrating the magnitude of the parcel post business handled by the Los Angeles postoffice, Postmaster Harrison this week gave out figures on the number of parcels dispatched and delivered in Los Angeles April 2, 3, 4, 5, says the Los Angeles Tribune. On those days there were delivered 20,752 packages and 19,739 dispatched. This means that on an average more than ten thousand packages are handled each day. The average incoming package weighed one pound four ounces, and the average outgoing parcel one pound five ounces. The average postage on each package was 35 cents.

SILK DRESSES ARE FROM SCRAP HEAP

Trade Secrets Revealed by 25,000 Silk Mill Employees Who Tell of "Iron" Cocoon

PATERSON, N. J., April 18.—The newest mode of attack decided upon by the 27,000 striking silk mill employees was disclosed this week when they began to divulge "trade secrets" regarding the manufacture of the material that is beloved above all others by milady.

"The dress in which the ladies take so much pride does not come from the cocoon, spun by the silk worm, as generally supposed, but from rusty horse shoes, scrap iron and empty tomato cans from the city dump heap," is one startling assertion made by the labor leaders.

"The average silk dress is composed of one part silk to six parts of tin, lead, iron or zinc," declared William D. Haywood, the I. W. W. leader in charge of the strike. "The metal coming from the scrap heaps back of the factory. It is taken, dumped into vats and treated chemically to make a solution. Then the fibers are immersed in this solution and absorb from four to six times their own weight of the metal."

COST OF PRODUCING SUGAR IN LOUISIANA INCREASES

WASHINGTON, April 17.—According to Secretary Redfield of the department of commerce, the average cost of producing a pound of sugar in Louisiana was 4.39 cents in 1911; in 1910 it was 3.72, and in 1909 it was 3.62 cents, as shown by an investigation by the department.

A comparison of five years of Cuban and certain Louisiana factories is made to show that the yield in Cuba was 229.3 pounds per ton of cane and 161.9 in Louisiana.

25 SURVIVORS OF FIRST CIVIL WAR REGIMENT MEET

PHILADELPHIA, April 18.—A hoary, shoulder bent band of twenty-five "original defenders" gathered here to answer a roll call today when First Defenders Association met. The gallant twenty-five were the only ones able to report out of the seventy surviving members of the first regiment to report in Washington on April 18, 1861, in answer to President Lincoln's first call for 75,000 volunteers. Post 2, G. A. R., was present with an oil painting of Charles E. Clarke, commander of the Oregon on its "dash" around Cape Horn during the Spanish-American war.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

The rain which fell yesterday afternoon was considered beneficial in a measure and dealers said that if it continued it would do considerable good to the crops which are now coming in, as well as to the country in general. The need of more rain has been felt for some time. Good precipitation at present will help the fruit crops and hay and grain, and should result in a better supply of dairy products, honey, etc.

The butter market was easier owing to the larger receipts of the past two days. There was a decline of 1/2 cent in creamery extras. The feeding was easy in the cheese market also. Eggs continued firm with an upward tendency. Receipts were rather light and the San Francisco market was up 1/2 cent.

Bermuda onions were down about 25 to 50 cents on the receipt of several cars from Imperial. Fancy rhubarb was scarce. There was a good supply of choice and extra choice at about $1.25 and $1.00, respectively. Some local cabbage was received but the northern stock is rather scarce at $1.50 a sack. Tomatoes varied considerably in grade and price—$1 to $2 range. There was a quantity of over-ripe stock on the market which had to be unloaded quickly. New potatoes were more plentiful, as the local crop is coming pretty strong. Quotations ranged from 4 to 7 cents a pound. Dried pink beans and chile seemed a little easier. Asparagus was not in its usual over-abundance. Several shipments of mushrooms were received and sold at 25 to 30 cents a pound, a decline of about 10 to 15 cents. Hot-house mushrooms were quoted around $2 to $2.50 a basket.

Good navel oranges continue rather scarce with prices ranging from $3 to $4 a box. There were some times at $1.50 a basket. Loquats were in good supply at 10 to 12 cents a pound for fancy fruit, which was rather more plentiful than usual. Apple receipts were good. Bananas continue comparatively scarce.

SHIPPING GOOD AT FULLERTON

Orangethorpe Has Chamber of Commerce; Deputy Assessor Makes Few Changes

FULLERTON, April 18.—While there has been a falling off in orange shipments from the Fullerton district, the Fullerton depot really shows an increase in business for the first three months of this year. The total business, both passenger and freight handled from the local depot during the first three months of 1912 was $87,163.56; first three months of 1913 it footed a grand total of $91,062.21, being an increase of nearly $5000 over last year. It is said that Fullerton is one of the few towns in Southern California in a fruit district that shows an increase in its freight and passenger business.

Deputy County Assessor Woodward

reports that while there will be some readjustments in his district nearly all of the property in the local district is being assessed at the same valuation that was placed on it last year. While the assessed valuation in Orange county will be about the same as last year, it is said the taxes will be higher than last year as the county rates will be higher.
The Orangethorpe Chamber of Commerce has been reorganized by electing L. B. Stewart, president; H. J. Schulte, vice-president, and L. M. Gardiner, secretary-treasurer. This chamber has made application to become a member of the Orange County Associated Chambers of Commerce.

BISHOP DUFFY CONSECRATED

Coughs and Consumption
Coughs and colds, when neglected, always lead to serious trouble of the lungs. The wisest thing to do when you have a cold that troubles you is to get a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery. You will get relief from the first dose, and finally the cough will disappear. O. H. Brown, of Muscadine, Ala., writes: "My wife was down in bed with an obstinate cough, and I honestly believe had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery, she would not be living today." Known for forty-three years as the best remedy for coughs and colds. Price 50c and $1.00. Recommended by all druggists.—Advertisement.

A NEW ORANGE SEPARATOR HAS BEEN INSTALLED

Orange Post: The Santiago Orange Growers' association installed one of the Chase separators last week. It was manufactured by George D. Parker of Riverside, who makes a specialty of constructing packing-house appliances and apparatus. By the way, Mr. Parker is a brother of Donald Parker, who used to live south of Orange.
The principal feature of the separator is a large tank about four feet wide, two and a half feet deep, and fourteen feet long, which is kept filled with water. This water is kept moving rapidly through the tank by a couple of propellers which draw the water out at one end and force it through a pipe which discharges back into the tank at the other end. About four feet from the intake of the tank two horizontal screens commence and extend throughout the most of the remainder of the tank, being placed at different depths in the water.
The oranges are distributed evenly across a carrier which drops them rapidly into the water at the intake, the bottom, unfrosted fruit, sinking near the bottom, the choice or second grade about the middle and the damaged fruit near the surface. The screens and swift flowing water direct the oranges to different divisions of the carrier by which they are delivered to their respective places.
This is but one of many pieces of machinery that the association has installed from time to time for the better handling of the fruit and which keep it abreast of the best packing and shipping concerns in Southern California.

FRECKLE-FACE

Sun and Wind Bring Out Ugly Spots, How to Remove Easily
Here's a chance, Miss Freckle-face, to try a new remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable dealer that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes the freckles; while if it does give you a clear complexion the expense is trifling.
Simply get an ounce of ointment—double strength from Mateer's Drug Store—and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of the homely freckles and get a beautiful complexion. Rarely is more than one ounce needed for the worst case.
Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength ointment as this is the prescription sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.

BROKEN AXLE TIED UP BEACH TRAFFIC

NEWPORT BEACH, April 17.—A broken axle on a Southern Pacific locomotive tied up traffic both on that road and the Pacific Electric here all forenoon. Engine No. 2109 in charge of Engineer Mike Ortiz and Conductor Henry was backing a heavy freight train off the wharf when the engine stalled squarely on the Pacific Electric crossing, one of the main driver axles breaking squarely off. The wrecking crew arrived from Los Angeles shortly after noon and towed the disabled engine away.

PARCEL POST EXPECTED IN CANADA ON GRADUAL PLAN

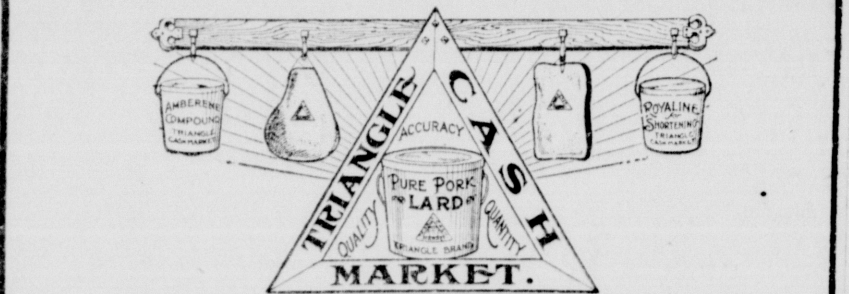

Canada has been observant of the working of the parcel post in the States and the cabinet council at Ottawa has endorsed Postmaster-General Pelletier's plan for its adoption there. A full adoption of it is taken to be impracticable because of the sparsely settled sections, and the project is to use the zone plan in limiting its operation. Within the present year, the head of the department predicts, the partial system will be in operation and extensions will be made as it is found that the facilities warrant.
In another line of development there is close watching in Canada of the proceedings at Washington. Comment is made there with local application on the plans of President Wilson as to the tariff. His pronouncement for the complete freeing of food-stuffs from duty is immediately taken to be good example for Canada.

Opportunity!

They do me wrong who say I come no more
When once I knock and fail to find you in;
For every day I stand outside your door;
And bid you wake and rise to fight and win.
Wait not for precious chances passed away,
Weep not for golden ages on the wane;
Each night I burn the records of the day,
At sunrise every soul is born again.
Laugh like a boy at splendors that have sped,
To vanished joys be blind and dead and dumb;
My judgments seal the dead past with its dead,
But never bind a moment yet to come.
Though deep in mire, wring not your hands and weep,
I lend my arm to all who say "I can."
No shamefaced outcast ever sank so deep
But he might rise and be again a man.

"Always Air"

ALWAYS AIR is a fluid compound, a small quantity of which, when placed in the inner tube of a pneumatic tire will instantly, automatically and permanently stop all punctures from the smallest to the size of a 20-penny spike.

IT IS NOT A TIRE FILLER
It is not only inexpensive but adds 50 per cent. to the service of tires. It will not injure rubber. It is not affected in its operation by heat or cold. It will not harden, gum, dry up or deteriorate. It will not stick the inner tube to the casing. It cannot come into contact with the casing. It can be changed from one tube to another. It will last for years. It adds practically no weight to the tire (only about three pounds to the largest tire.) It fills only a small portion of the inner tube, and the pneumatic quality of the tire is retained.

After picking up a nail in the road, you will always run at least a block and generally a much longer distance on a flat tire. This shortens the life of the casing at least 50 per cent, sometimes ruins it immediately. After having tires treated with our fluid you may remove nails at once or never remove them, and in either case there is no leakage of air.
